This luxury DETACHED property has been BEAUTIFULLY RENOVATED by the current owners to an immaculate standard and is offered with NO FORWARD CHAIN.

Lavender Cottage is perfectly positioned down a private gated driveway, within close proximity of excellent transport links, local amenities, beautiful walks and well-regarded schools.

The plot itself is spacious and secluded, with the property sitting centrally. There is parking for approximately four vehicles and access to a double garage, which has been partially converted into a further room, with a sink, water and drainage.

The external landscaping has been carefully considered to create a private and peaceful space, while backing onto a paddock behind, where you can see horses graze. The property also benefits from an insulated garden room, which s fitted with power and currently utilised as an office.

Upon entering Lavender Cottage, you are greeted into a large, light and welcoming entrance hall, which opens into the beautifully modernised living room. A notable feature of the living room is the large windows, providing a view to the lovely, landscaped garden. The windows are fitted with electric blinds.

The luxury fitted kitchen is a wonderful space to entertain and enjoy, with direct access to the garden and views across the paddock behind. The kitchen is fitted with integral appliances to include an induction hob and boiling water tap.

There are two generous double bedrooms on the ground floor, as well as a stunning shower room, which is fully tiled and benefits from a large walk-in shower, providing lateral living.

Upstairs, there are two large storage cupboards on the landing, as well as access to eaves storage from the principal bedroom.

The principle bedroom is spacious and enjoys a wonderful outlook towards the paddock.

The second bedroom is currently used as a dressing room, with a range of fitted wardrobes and drawers and again benefitting from a lovely outlook towards the rear.

The family bathroom is fully tiled and beautifully fitted. Lavender Cottage is truly fitted to an immaculate standard throughout and beautifully decorated.
